

Information correct as of 1st April 2026

Fee information

At Jack and Jill's, we do not currently charge an additional fee for consumables, we provide a light healthy breakfast, mid-morning and mid-afternoon snack accompanied by water or fresh milk. We ask that parents provide nappies, wet wipes and sun cream. If nappy rash cream is required, we also ask that is provided by yourself.

Our fees are set out below- all military families receive a discount on the hourly rate below (proof of military status is required, ex-military will also receive the discount once proof has been received by the manager).

Jack and Jill's Radford - fees start from £7.90 per hour

Jack and Jill's Goosewell - Fees start from £7.50 per hour

Jack and Jill's Widewell - Fees start from £7.70 per hour

Jack and Jill's Torpoint - Fees start from 6.00 per hour

Jack and Jill's Plympton -Fees start from £7.73 per hour (hot dinners are the only additional charge at Plympton, charged at £2.80 per day (in line with the local schools)).

An example of a typical invoice is displayed, with hot dinners as an additional charge, although the invoice states Plympton all our invoices are generic.

Our fees differ between sites for various reasons including but not exclusive to location, provision and age of children accepted. For more detailed information